Ahead challenges teen aged boys to see their high school years from the viewpoint of their entire life by encouraging them to develop the skills and attitudes necessary for future challenges. The classes are interactive seminar style with additional one-on-one mentoring, to develop character and responsibility for:

- Marriage & Fatherhood
- Professional Work
- Friendship
- Family Life
- Relationship with God

The seminars will focus on forming boys to become strong in willpower. They learn from true-life stories and practice the skills applicable in:

- Academic Excellence & Extracurricular Reading
- Sports & Hobbies
- True Friendships
- Career Interests
- College Admissions & Scholarships
- Public Speaking
- Virtues: Self-Discipline, Confidence, Loyalty, Courage, Generosity
